- (2) David Facey of 16 Marlborough Crescent, Chiswick, London, W14 1HF

WHEREBY IT IS AGREED as follows:

1 DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this Agreement the following words and expressions shall (unless the context otherwise requires) have the following meanings:

“ AIM Rules ”	the AIM Rules for Companies published by the London Stock Exchange, as amended from time to time;
“ Board ”	the board of directors for the time being of the Company (or any director or committee of directors authorised by the Board);
“ Business Day ”	a day, other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in the UK or the Republic of South Africa when banks in the City of London and in the Republic of South Africa are open for business;
“ Commencement Date ”	1 March 2019.
“ Engagement ”	the engagement of the executive director of the Company governed by this Agreement;
“ Group ”	the Company and each Group Company;
“ Group Company ”	any company, partnership, body corporate or unincorporated association wherever incorporated or based which is a holding company for the time being of the Company or a subsidiary for the time being of the Company or of any such holding company (for which purpose the expressions “holding company” and “subsidiary” shall have the meanings ascribed thereto by section 1179 Companies Act 2006 (as amended or re-enacted));
“ Month ”	a calendar month.
“ Share Dealing Code ”	the Company’s Share Dealing code.
“ Termination Date ”	the date on which the termination of the Engagement takes effect.

1.1 Where a clause in this Agreement refers to the Group and/or the Company and/or a Group Company, the clause shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be deemed to contain a distinct obligation in relation to the Company and each Group Company.

- 1.2 Words importing one gender shall be treated as importing the other, words importing persons shall be treated as importing bodies corporate, corporations, unincorporated associations and partners and vice versa, words importing the singular shall be treated as importing the plural and vice versa and words importing the whole shall be treated as including a reference to any part thereof.
- 1.3 Any reference to a statutory provision shall be deemed to include a reference to any statutory modification, amendment, re-enactment or superseding legislation and all statutory regulations thereunder.
- 1.4 Clause headings do not form part of this Agreement and shall not be taken into account in its construction or interpretation.
- 1.5 Any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular", "inter alia" or any similar expression shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the word preceding these terms.
- 1.6 Any reference to the Executive shall, if appropriate, include his personal representatives.

2 COMMENCEMENT OF ENGAGEMENT

- 2.1 The Engagement will commence on the Commencement Date and subject to earlier termination under clause 15 shall continue thereafter unless terminated by either party giving to the other no less than three months' notice in writing.

3 OFFICE AND DUTIES

- 3.1 The Executive serves the Company as a Director and the Executive's title shall be Chief Financial Officer. In this capacity the Executive shall have particular responsibility for the supervision and management of the finance function of the Group.
- 3.2 The Executive shall regularly report to the Board and keep the Board informed (in writing, if so requested) of the performance of the duties assigned to the Executive and provide such explanations and other information as the Board may from time to time require.
- 3.3 The Executive is aware that the Engagement is based on mutual trust, loyalty and confidence and of the fiduciary duties the Executive owes to the Company and the Executive shall at all times during his Employment: -
 - 3.3.1 devote so much of his time, ability and attention as is required for the proper performance of his duties and act in the best interests of the Company and the Group;
 - 3.3.2 faithfully and diligently perform those duties and exercise such powers consistent with them that are from time to time assigned to or vested in the Executive by the Board;
 - 3.3.3 conform to and comply with all lawful directions of the Board;
 - 3.3.4 comply with any codes, policies, procedures, rules and regulations which the Company or a Group Company may issue from time to time;
 - 3.3.5 promptly disclose to the Board any information which comes into the Executive's possession which adversely affects or may adversely affect the Company and/or any member of the Group or the business of the Company and/or any member of the Group;
 - 3.3.6 use his best endeavours to promote the interests of the Company and of each Group Company, maintain and improve the Company's business and protect and further the interests and reputation of the Company and the Group and do nothing to their detriment; and

3.3.7 not at any time make any untrue or misleading statement relating to the Company or a Group Company.

3.4 The Executive may be required to travel on the business of the Company or any Group Company as the Company may from time to time require. This may involve travelling outside normal business hours and at weekends, bank or public holidays, should the need arise.

4 SERVICE OBLIGATIONS

4.1 The Executive shall not during the Engagement engage, enter into, undertake or be concerned or in any manner interested in any capacity either directly or indirectly whether paid or unpaid in any other occupation or business or trade or the setting up of any business or trade which is wholly or partly in competition with the activities of the Company or any Group Company.

4.2 The Executive shall not at any time during the continuance of this Agreement without the previous written consent of the Board engage or be concerned or interested, either directly or indirectly, in any other trade, profession, business or occupation which in the reasonable opinion of the Board would materially interfere with the proper performance of the Executive's duties or hold any directorship in any company other than a member of the Group without prior written approval from the Board which shall not be unreasonably withheld in the case of non-executive directorships of companies that are not in competition with the business of the Group or activities that would not obstruct the Executive's ability to perform his duties under this Agreement in priority to the requirement of any other such activity undertaken by the Executive.

4.3 The Executive shall not at any time during the continuance of this Agreement do any thing (whether in his activities for the Group or otherwise) which may in the reasonable opinion of the Board significantly bring the Company or any member of the Group into disrepute or harm the goodwill or the reputation of the Company or any member of the Group.

4.4 Nothing contained in this Agreement shall preclude the Executive from being interested in issued shares or other securities of any class of any company which are listed or dealt in on a recognised Stock Exchange. However, if the Executive wishes to be interested in more than 3 per cent. of the issued shares or other securities of any class of any company which are listed or dealt in on a recognised Stock Exchange the Executive must first obtain the written agreement of the Board, which shall only be withheld if in the reasonable and written opinion of the Board such interest would materially conflict with the interests of the Company or interfere with the proper performance of the Executives duties. All share dealings shall be carried out in accordance with the Share Dealing Code as adopted by the Board on Admission.

4.5 During the continuation of the Engagement the Executive shall not directly or indirectly procure to obtain for his own benefit (or for the benefit of any other person (other than the Company)) any payment, rebate, discount, commission, voucher, gift or other benefit (with the exception of reasonable corporate entertainment) from any third party in respect of any business transacted or proposed to be transacted (whether or not by the Executive) by or on behalf of the Company or any member of the Group or its clients and shall immediately disclose and account to the Company for any such payment or benefit received by the Executive (or by any other person on his behalf or at his instruction).

5 STOCK EXCHANGE REQUIREMENTS

5.1 The Executive shall not deal in any shares or other securities issued by the Company or by any other Group Member:

5.1.1 in contravention of the insider dealing provisions of the Criminal Justice Act 1993; nor

5.1.2 other than in accordance with the Share Dealing Code;

- 5.2 The Executive shall promptly notify to the secretary of the Company:
- 5.2.1 written particulars of any share transactions relating to the Executive or any person connected to the Executive which are required by law to be notified to the Company; and
 - 5.2.2 all relevant information relating to the Executive or any such connected person which the Company is required to notify to the London Stock Exchange in accordance with or pursuant to the AIM Rules.
- 5.3 The Executive shall, insofar as applicable to his as a result of the Executive being a director or employee of the Company, comply with all relevant provisions of:
- 5.3.1 rules governing any share transactions relating to the Executive or any person connected to the Executive which are required by law to be notified to the Company;
 - 5.3.2 the AIM Rules; and
 - 5.3.3 the UK Corporate Governance Code as published by the Financial Reporting Council.

6 TASKS TO BE UNDERTAKEN

- 6.1 The Executive has agreed to work on the basis that the Executive will provide his services and devote time and attention to the affairs of the Company and any Group Company as and when the Board allocates responsibility for the performance of tasks to the Executive.
- 6.2 The Executive will be obliged to provide the time and attention required to perform the tasks allocated to the Executive under clause 6.1 in priority to any other business commitments that the Executive has undertaken, if and to the extent that his engagement with those other commitments would delay, distract or otherwise obstruct his ability to carry out such tasks for the Company in accordance with the terms on which they are allocated.
- 6.3 Subject to clauses 6.1 and 6.2 above, the Executive will take all reasonably steps to make himself available to work when required and will perform such work as is required in a prompt and timely manner.
- 6.4 The Executive will not have a single fixed place of work but will be able to conduct the tasks assigned to the Executive from such location as may be suitable for the activity and task involved. However, it is anticipated that his services as a director and an employee will be carried out within the United Kingdom. The Executive may be required to travel to locations outside the Executive's country of residence if the Company so requests.

7 REMUNERATION

- 7.1 The Executive is to receive £60,000 per annum in respect of his services as an Executive Director,
- 7.2 The Executive hereby authorises the Company any time during the Engagement, in any event on the termination of the Engagement, howsoever arising, to deduct from the Executive's remuneration in respect of the Employment any monies due from the Executive to the Company and/or a Group Company.
- 7.3 It is anticipated the Chief Financial Officer will be required to work approximately 2.5 days per week on average. If he is required to work in excess of this he would be paid for those extra hours based on an hourly rate. (£100 per hour)
- 7.4 The Chief Financial Officer will be entitled to participate in the company incentive scheme as agreed by REMCO.

7.5 This employment is deemed to take place within the UK All fees to the Executive under this agreement will be paid through PAYE and are subject to deduction of tax and national insurance contributions and any other amounts which the Company is obliged to deduct.

8 EXPENSES

8.1 The Executive shall upon the production of properly receipted vouchers or such other evidence of actual payment of expenses as the Company may require be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred by the Executive on behalf of the Company in the proper performance of his duties under this Agreement subject to the Executive complying with such guidelines or regulations as may be issued by the Company or a Group Company from time to time.

8.2 Any credit card supplied to the Executive by the Company shall be used only for expenses incurred by him in the course of the Engagement.

9 HOLIDAYS

9.1 The Executive is entitled to five weeks' paid leave in every Holiday Year (as defined in clause 9.3). The Executive is permitted at his option to be paid in lieu of two weeks' of his ordinary entitlement to three weeks' paid leave under this clause.

9.2 Any holiday is to be taken at such times and periods only as shall be approved in advance by the Board.

9.3 The holiday year shall run from 1 January to 31 December in each year (the "Holiday Year") and any holiday not taken by the end of the Holiday Year may not be carried forward to the subsequent Holiday Year unless otherwise agreed by the Board in special circumstances meriting this.

9.4 For the Holiday Year in the year of commencement and the Holiday Year in which the Employment is terminated, the Executive's holiday entitlement for that Holiday Year shall be calculated on a pro rata basis for the period of service completed by the Executive during that Holiday Year.

9.5 Without prejudice to clause 9.3, if on termination of this Agreement (howsoever arising) the Executive has exceeded his holiday entitlement, the Company shall be entitled to deduct a sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Working Time Regulations relating to paid holiday in respect of holiday taken in excess of his entitlement from any sums due to the Executive on termination of his Engagement howsoever arising or require the Executive to undertake additional work.

9.6 The Executive shall be entitled to statutory holiday entitlement only during his notice period.

9.7 On termination of this Agreement the Company shall be entitled:

9.7.1 To require the Executive to use any accrued holiday entitlement during his notice period;

9.7.2 Alternatively to pay to the Executive a sum agreed between the Company and the Executive in lieu of his accrued but untaken holiday entitlement, if any, by the Termination Date.

10 HEALTH AND PENSIONS

10.1 If during the Engagement the Executive shall at any time be unable properly to perform his duties by reason of illness (including mental disorders), injury, accident, incapacity or otherwise, the Executive shall notify the Board of the fact and nature of the incapacity as soon as possible on the first day of absence or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter and on each subsequent day unless supported by a medical certificate.

- 10.2 In respect of any absence due to illness, the Executive must by way of self-certification complete an absence statement upon his return in a form required by the Company from time to time. In addition, a medical certificate must be produced to the Company for periods of absence of 7 consecutive calendar days (including Saturdays and Sundays) or more and on a weekly basis thereafter. The Company reserves the right to require medical certificates for periods of absence of less than 7 calendar days and will be responsible for the reasonable cost of such certificates.
- 10.3 If the incapacity of the Executive to perform his duties appears to have been caused wholly or partially by any act, negligence, breach of duty or omission by a third party, the Executive must without delay notify the Company of the circumstances and must provide the Company with any further particulars that the Company may reasonably require. If the Executive receives any damages, compensation, settlement or any other payment in respect of such act, negligence, breach of duty or omission the Company may require the Executive to refund to the Company a sum representing the lesser of the aggregate or any remuneration (in excess of statutory sick pay) paid in respect of the period of incapacity and the amount of the payment received by the Executive.
- 10.4 The Company reserves the right to require the Executive to submit to an independent medical examination, the reasonable cost of which will be borne by the Company. The Executive hereby gives his written consent to the disclosure of any report produced by the medical practitioner in confidence to the Company or its advisers and the Executive hereby authorises the medical practitioner carrying out the examination to discuss and disclose any matters arising from such examination which might affect the Executive's health or hinder or affect the proper performance of his duties.

11 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, PROPERTY AND SECURITY

- 11.1 The Executive agrees that in order to protect the legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, the Executive shall not, except in the proper course of his duties hereunder during the continuance of this Agreement for whatever reason use or in any way divulge to any person whatsoever (and shall use his best endeavours to prevent the publication or disclosure of) any trade secrets and confidential knowledge, know-how and information relating or belonging to the Company or any Group Company.
- 11.2 The Executive agrees that in order to protect the legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, the Executive shall not at any time (without limitation) after the termination of this Agreement for whatever reason use or in any way divulge to any person whatsoever (and shall use his best endeavours to prevent the publication or disclosure of) any trade secrets and confidential knowledge, know-how and information relating or belonging to the Company or a Group Company save as may be required by law.
- 11.3 The restrictions contained in clause 11.1 and 11.2 shall:
- 11.3.1 without limitation be deemed to apply to information or knowledge of a confidential nature concerning any of the business methods, ideas, know-how, dealings, transactions, affairs or finances of the Company or a Group Company and any names, files, books, records or accounts or data in relation thereto and any documents marked confidential and any information which the Executive has been told is confidential or which the Executive might reasonably expect that the Company or a Group Company would regard as confidential including particulars of any litigation in which the Company or the Group may be involved and the Executive's and other employees' remuneration package and information relating to their terms and conditions of employment and its termination and any information which has been given to the Company or a Group Company or to the Executive in confidence by customers, suppliers or other persons;
- 11.3.2 cease to apply to any information which comes into the public domain otherwise than as a result of the default of the Executive.

- 11.4 The Executive is required to ensure that all of the Company's and a Group Company's papers, documents and information are kept secure at all times and should not be removed from the Company's or Group Company's premises as the case may be unless strictly necessary for the proper performance of his duties.
- 11.5 The Executive acknowledges that any breach of this clause or sub-clauses entitles the Company to terminate the Engagement summarily pursuant to clause 16 of this Agreement.

12 DATA PROTECTION

- 12.1 For the purposes of this clause 12:
- 12.1.1 "Personal Data means data which relates to an individual whilst the Executive is alive and from which data itself or from which data and other information which is in the possession of the Company or a Group Company (or any data processor instructed by the Company or a Group Company) the individual can be identified. Such data includes any expression of opinion by the individual and any indication of the intentions of the Company or any other person in respect of the individual; and
- 12.1.2 "Sensitive Personal Data" means Personal Data consisting of information as to the racial or ethnic origin of an individual, his political beliefs, his religious beliefs or other beliefs of a similar nature, whether the Executive is a member of a trade union, his physical or mental health or condition, his sexual life, the commission by him of any offence or any proceedings for any offence committed or alleged to have been committed by him, the disposal of such proceedings or the sentence of any court in such proceedings.
- 12.2 The Executive explicitly consents to Personal Data (including Sensitive Personal Data) relating to him and to his Engagement to the extent that it is reasonably necessary in connection with his Engagement or the business of the Company or a Group Company:
- 12.2.1 being collected and held (in hard copy and computer readable form) and processed by the Company or a Group Company;
- 12.2.2 being disclosed or transferred to other employees of the Company or a Group Company and their officers and employees and other persons as may be reasonably necessary and as otherwise required or permitted by law; and
- 12.2.3 being collected and transferred to any other person as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of a prospective and/or actual acquisition or merger.
- 12.3 The Executive explicitly consents that the transfer and disclosure of Personal Data as set out above shall apply regardless of the country of residence of the person to whom the data is to be transferred. Where the disclosure or transfer is to a person resident outside the European Economic Area, the Company shall take reasonable steps to ensure that his rights and freedoms in relation to the processing of the relevant Personal Data are adequately protected.
- 12.4 The Executive acknowledges that any breach of this clause or sub-clauses entitles the Company to terminate the Engagement summarily pursuant to clause 16 of this Agreement.
- 12.5 The Executive agrees to use all reasonable endeavours to keep the Company informed of any changes to his personal data and to comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

13 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

All records, documents, paper, (including copies and summaries thereof) and other copyright protected works made or acquired by the Executive in the course of the Engagement shall, together with all the world-wide copyright and design rights in all such works, be and at all times remain the absolute property of the Company.

14 REDRESS OF GRIEVANCE OR DISCIPLINARY ISSUE

- 14.1 The Executive is subject to the Company's disciplinary and grievance procedures, copies of which are available from the Board. These procedures do not form part of the Executive's contract of employment.
- 14.2 If the Executive wishes to appeal against a disciplinary decision the Executive may apply in writing to the Board in accordance with the Company's disciplinary procedure.
- 14.3 The Company may at any time suspend the Executive for a period of up to 2 weeks during any period in which the Company is carrying out a disciplinary investigation into any alleged acts or defaults by the Executive. During any period of suspension, the Executive shall continue to receive his salary and contractual benefits.
- 14.4 If the Executive wishes to raise a grievance, the Executive may apply in writing to the Board in accordance with the Company's grievance procedure.

15 GARDEN LEAVE

- 15.1 The Company may at its discretion at any time during the Engagement or during any period of notice or part thereof whether given by the Company or the Executive, require the Executive (subject to the Company continuing to pay the Executive his salary and contractual benefits), not to attend his place of work and not to perform any duties for the Company or any Group Company or to perform only such specific projects or tasks as are expressly assigned to him, in any case for such period and at such place or places including his home residence as the Company may in its discretion decide.
- 15.2 During any such period when the Executive is required not to attend work and not to perform some or all of his duties for the Company:
 - 15.2.1 The Executive shall, for the avoidance of doubt remain an employee, and keep himself available for what would be the Executive's normal working hours and remain bound to continue to comply with the terms of this Agreement and to continue strictly to observe his express duties hereunder and his implied duties of good-faith and fidelity;
 - 15.2.2 the Company shall be entitled to exclude the Executive from the Company's or any Group Companies' premises and to request that the Executive has no contact with clients and/or customers of the Company or any Group Company; and
 - 15.2.3 the Executive shall not:
 - (a) provide any assistance to, or work, for a competitor of the Company or a Group Company, including assisting (directly or indirectly) in the preparation of a business plan, or participating (directly or indirectly) in business conferences whether for strategy, planning or team building purposes;
 - (b) save for routine social contact with people who are already the Executive's personal friends, contact employees or clients of the Company or a Group Company with whom the Executive dealt while employed by the Company;
 - (c) seek, whether directly or indirectly, to publicise in any way the fact that the Executive is leaving the Company; and
 - (d) without the prior written permission of the Board, attend any corporate hospitality events.

16 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

16.1 The Company may terminate the Engagement at any time without notice and without any payment in lieu of notice if the Executive is guilty of gross misconduct or in any way fundamentally in breach of the terms of his employment contract with the Company. The following are examples of conduct that would entitle the Company to terminate the Engagement summarily:

- 16.1.1 if the Executive becomes prohibited by law from being a director;
- 16.1.2 if the Executive resigns his office of director
- 16.1.3 if the office of director of the Company held by the Executive is vacated pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association save if the vacation shall be caused by illness (including mental disorder or injury);
- 16.1.4 if the Executive is guilty of a breach of the rules or regulations as amended from time to time of the London Stock Exchange in particular the AIM Rules, the UK Listing Authority (including the Model Code for transactions in securities by directors of listed companies), the Financial Services Authority or any regulatory authorities relevant to the Company or any Group Company or any code of practice issued by the Company (as amended from time to time);
- 16.1.5 theft, fraud, deliberately providing false or misleading information or engaging in any act of dishonesty, or use of company property for other means or third parties;
- 16.1.6 any act or attempted act of violence or abusive behaviour towards people or property or persistent use of foul language or unnecessary continual raising of voice including causing deliberate damage to the Company's or Group Company's property;
- 16.1.7 indecent behaviour towards or harassment or bullying of or discrimination against fellow employees, suppliers, customers or clients;
- 16.1.8 incapability through alcohol, non-prescribed drugs or other substances. The Executive is obliged to inform the Company if prescribed drugs may affect his work in any way;
- 16.1.9 wilful breach of health and safety regulations;
- 16.1.10 a serious act of insubordination or wilful refusal to carry out reasonable requests;
- 16.1.11 serious or persistent neglect of duties or serious or persistent breaches of the terms and conditions of the Employment;
- 16.1.12 unauthorised use of or disclosure of confidential information;
- 16.1.13 serious breach of the Company's or the Group's policies, procedures or rules;
- 16.1.14 falsifying records or expense claims;
- 16.1.15 conviction of a criminal offence arising from or related to the Executive's work for the Company or any other Group Company;
- 16.1.16 conviction of a criminal offence committed outside working hours which in the opinion of the Company adversely affects the Company's or the Group's business or reputation, or affects the Executive's suitability for the type of work which the Executive performs or affects his acceptability to other employees or officers;

- 16.1.17 any act which the Executive knows or should reasonably believe is likely to bring the Company or the Group into disrepute;
- 16.1.18 unauthorised signing of documentation committing the Company or a Group Company to any financial obligation or exceeding the Executive's authority in any way;
- 16.1.19 misuse of the Company's or the Group's computer system or computer software;
- 16.1.20 misuse of the Company's or the Group's property or name;
- 16.1.21 negligence which causes or might cause unacceptable loss, damage or injury;
- 16.1.22 serious breach of confidence (subject to the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998); and

This list is intended as a guide and is not exhaustive.

16.2 Dismissal on short notice

The Company may terminate this Agreement by not less than 3 months' prior written notice given at any time if the Executive is incapacitated by ill-health or accident from performing his duties under this Agreement and has been so incapacitated for a period or periods aggregating 3 calendar months in the preceding 6 months, provided that the Company shall withdraw any such notice if during the currency of the notice the Executive returns to full time duties under this Agreement and provides a medical practitioner's certificate satisfactory to the Board to the effect that the Executive has fully recovered his health and that no recurrence of his illness or incapacity can reasonably be anticipated.

- 16.3 Without prejudice to clause 15 and in order to investigate a complaint of misconduct against the Executive, the Company is entitled to suspend the Executive on full pay and contractual benefits and to exclude the Executive from its premises (or the premises of a Group Company) for such period as may be required to carry out a proper investigation and hold a disciplinary hearing. The Executive shall comply with all instructions from the Company during any period of suspension.
- 16.4 The Executive acknowledges that if the Executive is on notice or under suspension, the Executive shall have no right to work.
- 16.5 The Executive shall upon the termination of the Engagement (howsoever arising) or at any time prior thereto at the request of the Company:
 - 16.5.1 immediately deliver up to the Company all property of the Company or of any other Group Company, including such property as is referred to in clause 11, mobile telephones, laptops, printers, vehicles, equipment, keys, computer software (whether owned or licensed), memoranda, notes, records, reports, sketches, plans or copies of such items and all other correspondence, documents and records which may have come into his possession or under his control and shall not retain any copies and not be entitled to any copyright thereto;
 - 16.5.2 supply the Company with a written list describing all matters to do with the Company's or a Group Company's business in which the Executive has been involved and which is either unfinished or likely to recur or require further action on the part of the Company or a Group Company or which carries a significant risk of the Company and/or a Group Company incurring any loss, financial liability, penalty or other disadvantage. The list must either identify the whereabouts of, or be annexed to, all files, correspondence and other papers which relate to each matter on the list; and
 - 16.5.3 if required, the Executive shall sign a statement confirming that the Executive has complied with this clause.

- 16.6 Upon termination of the Engagement (howsoever arising) any right the Executive may have to use credit, bankers, cheque, fuel or any other similar cards or as an authorised person on a bank mandate or documents or mobile phones on behalf of the Company/Group shall automatically terminate. Such cards, mobile phones and accessories or documents shall be returned to the Company and the Executive shall reimburse the Company on demand for any loss it may suffer because of unauthorised use.
- 16.7 On the termination of this Agreement for whatever reason, the Executive shall at the request of the Company resign (without prejudice to any claims which the Executive may have against any Company arising out of this Agreement or the termination thereof) from all and any offices which the Executive may hold as a Director of the Company and/or of any Group Company and from all other appointments or offices which the Executive may hold as nominee or representative of the Company and if the Executive should fail to do so within 7 days of receiving a notice requiring him to do so the Company is hereby irrevocably authorised to appoint some person in his name to act as his attorney and on her behalf to sign any documents or do any things necessary or requisite to effect such resignations and/or transfer(s).

17 POST TERMINATION OBLIGATIONS

In this clause the following words and phrases carry the meanings shown opposite each of them:

- 17.6 the Restricted Period in the course of any business concern which is in competition with or preparing to be in competition with any Restricted Business offer employment to or otherwise endeavour to entice away from the Company or a Group Company any Restricted Employee.
- 17.7 The Executive shall on receipt of any approach or invitation to take up alternative employment or enter into a business relationship with a competitor of the Company make such person aware of all restrictions and obligations which the Executive owes the Company and/or any Group Company.
- 17.8 All prohibitions upon the Executive in this clause 17 shall include as a distinct covenant the acts of any company or business in which the Executive is directly engaged concerned or interested and shall also include acts done by his alone or jointly whether on his or any such companies' or business' account or for any other person and whether as principal, controlling shareholder, partner, executive, agent, consultant, adviser or otherwise directly or indirectly.
- 17.9 The Executive hereby agrees and declares that if any one or more or any part of the covenants contained in this clause shall be rendered or judged invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction then such covenant, covenants or part of a covenant shall be deemed to be severed from this Agreement and such invalidity or enforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining covenant, covenants or part of a covenant contained in this clause notwithstanding the fact that it appears in the same clause, sub-clause or sentence as any other covenant or is imposed by the introduction of a word or phrase conjunctively with or disjunctively from or alternatively to other words or phrases and the Executive hereby acknowledges that the above restrictive covenants are fair and reasonable in the circumstances for the protection of the goodwill of and/or the business of the Company and a Group Company.

18 NON-REPRESENTATION

The Executive covenants with the Company that the Executive will not at any time after ceasing to be employed under this Agreement either personally or by his agent directly or indirectly use the name of the Company or of a Group Company in connection with his own or any other name calculated to suggest that the Executive is connected with the Company or a Group Company nor in any way hold himself out or represent himself as being in any way connected with or interested in the business of the Company or a Group Company.

19 MEDIA AND PRESS

The Executive shall not contact or communicate with any member of the press or media on behalf of the Company or a Group Company without obtaining the prior consent of the Company.

20 GENERAL

20.1 The Executive warrants that as at the date of entering into this Agreement and the Commencement Date the Executive is not in breach of any express or implied terms of any contracts or of obligations binding upon his and not prevented from entering into the Engagement.

20.2 Any notice given under this Agreement shall be given in writing and may be given by either party by delivering it personally or sending it by pre-paid registered or recorded post to the other party at the usual or last known address or in the case of the Company, its registered office only. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been received:

- (i) if delivered personally, at the time of delivery;
- (ii) in the case of pre-paid recorded or registered post, 24 hours from the date of posting; and
- (iii) in the case of service outside the United Kingdom, 5 days from the date of posting.

Provided that if deemed receipt occurs after 5pm on any day, the notice shall be deemed to have been received at 9am on the next Business Day. In proving such service, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing such notice was addressed, in the case of the Executive to his usual or last known address and in case of the Company, its registered office address (or as otherwise notified by that party hereunder) and delivered either to that address or into the custody of the postal authorities as a pre-paid recorded or registered post. For the purpose of this clause, "Business Day" means any day which is not a Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday in the place at or to which the notice is left or sent.

20.3 This Agreement supersedes all and any previous agreements made between the Company and the Executive and together with any documents referred to in this Agreement constitutes the entire terms and conditions of the Engagement.

20.4 In the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and any codes, policies, procedures, rules and regulations of the Company or a Group Company from time to time, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

20.5 The Company reserves the right reasonably to vary the Executive's terms of employment at any time. The Executive will be notified of minor changes of detail by way of general notice to all employees. Such changes will have effect from the date of the notice. Any significant changes may be notified to the Executive by individual notice or general notice to all employees up to one month in advance.

20.6 The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall apply to this Agreement to the extent (but no more) set out in this clause. Any Group Company shall be entitled to enforce the benefits conferred on it of this Agreement. The consent of a Group Company shall not be required for the variation or termination of this Agreement, even if that variation or termination affects the benefits conferred on any Group Company.

20.7 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, which shall together constitute one Agreement. Any party may enter into this Agreement by signing any such counterpart.

20.8 This Agreement is subject to English law and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
